

Art supplies store

I want to create an art supply and craft store that provides high end and specialized art supplies to people with specific and passionate interests.

Function

The website is meant to convince dedicated people to buy from and stay with our brand long term. I want to appeal to enthusiasts so I have a dedicated audience. I need to quickly show the variety of people we serve. And of course selling art supplies.

For

- Professional artists
- Art students
- Kids and people who just want to try art (secondary)
- Crafters
- Model making

- Hobby shops
- General stores like target
- Hardware store

Top 5 functions of product

1. Attract serious artists.
2. Divide people based on their interests
3. Keep customers in the long term
4. Make sales
5. Reach out to people who are looking for something specific

Measures of success

- High price products sell the most. This indicates the people buying them have a long term passion for the art or craft they create.
- People only buy products related to their specific interests.

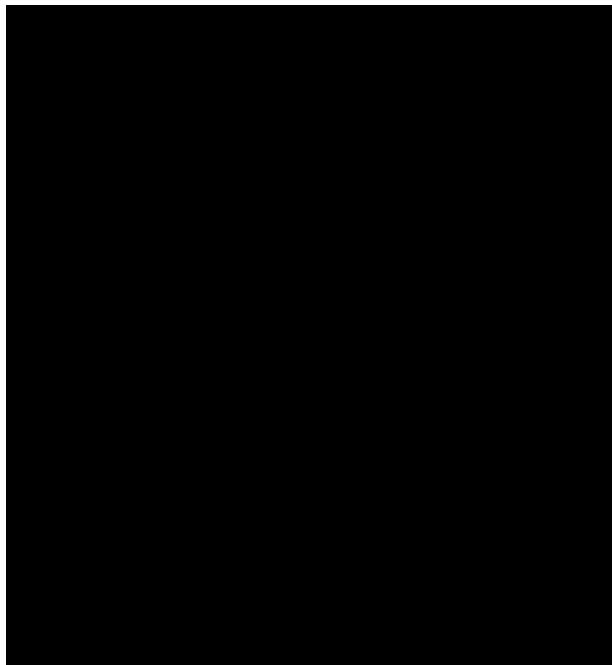

Competitors visual audit
